

Continuing Education Reading List

The following books will be helpful to you as you continue growing in your counseling knowledge and skills. In order to earn CEUs for these readings, please take note of the following:

- Texts marked with an (*) are on a specialization reading list and may not be selected for CEUs if they were read in earning a specialization.
- Many books in the *Lifeline Mini-book Series* published through Shepherds Press are included in this list. To see which ones are included, log into your account and check out the drop-down list under the “self-reporting” category for approved reading.
- All of the books included in the *Biblical Solutions & Biblical Evaluation Booklet Series* published through ACBC count towards earning CEUs. To see the full list, log into your account and check out the drop-down list under the “self-reporting” category for approved reading.
- Disclaimer: Due to the nature of continuing education and the breadth of topics found within this list, members should understand that the purpose of this list is for the critical and biblical engagement of ideas and should not, therefore, be taken or viewed as an endorsement by ACBC of each of the titles, authors, or ideas found therein.
- Texts must be read within the current earning window of reporting. Once you have read the book, you will log into your account, enter your CEU Portal, and select the “Self-Report CEUs” tool.

If you would like to recommend an addition to this list, or if you have any questions about this list or the process, please contact us at ceu@biblicalcounseling.com. We try to update this list quarterly.
